Agrarian Reforms and Modernisation in Twentieth Century Romania: A Case Study: Bordei Verde Commune in Braila County ... / Publications Universitaires Européennes):

The underdevelopment of agriculture was an important subject during the negotiations for Romania's accession to the European Union. The problem of backwardness in rural areas is however far from new and during the twentieth century several agrarian reforms attempted to resolve it. In order to determine the causes of their failure, this volume focuses on a region in the South Eastern part of Romania and investigates the activity of three sets of social actors. About the Author: Cornel Micu is Assistant Professor at the Faculty of Communication and International Relations at Danubius University in Galati, Romania. His fields of interest are social and economic history, the transformation of social structure.
